

e. 295,831
S. 369,281

Sanitized - Approved For Release : CIA-RDP75

Front Edit Other
Page Page Page

Date: SEP 7 1963

CPYRGHT

CIA 'Agent' A Casanova

An Elmont mechanic accused of assuming the role of an agent of the Central Intelligence Agency to impress a lady friend was arrested yesterday by the FBI.

New York Assistant FBI Director John F. Malone said Thomas Catizone, 34, of 48 Wellington Road, impersonated a CIA agent to bilk the woman of "several thousand dollars."

What ruined the scheme, the FBI said, was the woman's discovery that Catizone, who had recently proposed, was already married.

Catizone will be arraigned Sept. 7 in New York's Southern District Court.